

Kappa Theta Pi - Mu Chapter will not tolerate harassment in any form. Violation of the Policy subjects an offending person to disciplinary action, including expulsion from the Fraternity. This policy applies to all organizational members.

All organizational members are protected from harassment, including, but not limited to, harassment according to their race, ethnicity, age, gender, gender identity, disability, sexual orientation, and religion. Harassment is more than insensitivity or conduct that offends or creates an uncomfortable situation. Any words or acts designed to disregard the safety or rights of another and which intimidate, degrade, demean, threaten, and/or haze will not be tolerated on the basis of the standards of Kappa Theta Pi - Mu Chapter. Such physical, psychological, verbal, electronic, and/or written acts directed toward an individual or group of individuals are prohibited.

Harassment in any form is unacceptable because it is demeaning to another person and undermines the integrity of the Fraternity. Organizational members should always treat others respectfully and with dignity in a manner that does not offend another person's sensibilities.

Policy 1. Discrimination

Discrimination against or harassment of any individual for the reason of race, ethnicity, creed, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, national origin, age, disability or veteran status is specifically prohibited. Accordingly, equal access to employment opportunities, membership, educational programs, financial assistance, and all other fraternal activities is extended to all persons.

Policy 2. Assault & Battery

In any activity or event sponsored or endorsed by Kappa Theta Pi - Mu Chapter, no chapter, member or guest will engage in or permit assault and battery as defined in the state statutes in which the activity or event occurs.

Physical Violence: Physical violence or threats thereof will not be tolerated under any circumstances.

Policy 3. Sexual Misconduct

No organizational member or guest will engage in or permit sexist or sexually abusive behavior, sexual harassment, non-consensual sexual activity, sexual violence, domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual exploitation. For the purposes of this policy:

- Consent is the affirmative, unambiguous, and voluntary agreement to engage in a specific sexual activity during a sexual encounter.
- Sexual harassment is unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature.
- Sexual violence is any physical or sexual act perpetrated against a person's will or where a person is incapable of giving consent (e.g., due to an individual's age or use of drugs or alcohol, or because of an intellectual or other disability prevents the individual from having the capacity to give consent).
- Domestic violence is an abusive behavior used by an intimate partner to gain or maintain power and control over the other intimate partner. Domestic violence can be physical, sexual, emotional, economic, or psychological actions or threats of actions that influence another person.
- Dating violence is defined as violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and where the existence of such a relationship will be determined based on a consideration of the following factors: the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

- Stalking is defined as a pattern of repeated and unwanted attention, harassment, contact, or any other course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to feel fear.
- Sexual exploitation occurs when a person takes non-consensual or abusive sexual advantage of another for his/her own advantage or benefit, or to benefit or advantage anyone other than the one being exploited. That behavior does not otherwise constitute one of other sexual misconduct offenses.

Policy 4. Sexual Harassment

Harassment and Bullying: Harassment or any form of intimidation is unacceptable. However, it's recognized that sometimes jokes among friends can be misconstrued. In such cases, intent and context will be considered, and the matter may be subject to review.

Kappa Theta Pi - Mu Chapter will not tolerate sexual harassment in any form. Violation of this policy subjects an offending person to disciplinary action, including expulsion from the Fraternity. This policy applies to all Fraternity collegiate members, pledges, alumni members, officers, directors, and employees.
[]

Definition: Sexual harassment consists of unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors or other verbal or physical acts of a sexual nature where:

- Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of membership in the Fraternity or
- A Fraternity decision is based on an individual's acceptance or rejection of such conduct or
- Such conduct interferes with an individual's membership in the Fraternity or work for the Fraternity or creates an environment that is intimidating, hostile, or offensive to a reasonable person of the same sex as the recipient.

Sexual harassment is a form of misconduct that is unacceptable because it is demeaning to another person and undermines the integrity of the Fraternity. Fraternity members and pledges at all times should treat others respectfully and with dignity in a manner that does not offend another person's sensibilities. Actions taken by nonmembers relating to Fraternity business may also constitute sexual harassment and should be promptly reported.

A violation may include, but is not limited to:

- Any action or statement of a sexual nature which is embarrassing, harassing, intimidating, or abusive;
- Unwanted comments, communications, jokes, or requests of a sexual nature;
- Unwelcome and persistent sexually explicit statements or stories;
- Repeated use of sexually degrading words, gestures, or sounds to describe a person;
- Recurring derogatory comments or questions about an individual's sexual orientation and/or behavior;
- Any kind of unwelcome sexual advances;
- Repeated phone calls, messages, and/or other communications sexual in nature, even after statements have there is no interest;

- Threats of retaliation as a result of a sexual encounter;
- Implied or stated threats of sexual violence;
- Sexual harassment can occur with any gender, gender identities/expressions, and/or sexual orientation.

Policy 8. Alcohol

Responsibility: If alcohol is consumed at fraternity events, it should be done responsibly and within legal limits.

Policy 9. Attendance

Mandatory Meetings: Members are expected to attend all mandatory meetings. If a member cannot attend due to an unavoidable conflict, they should email kappathetapiutd@gmail.com at least 24 hours in advance.

Event Participation: Active participation in fraternity events is mandatory. A consistent lack of participation without a valid reason will be subject to review.

Committee Commitment: Members who are a part of specific committees have a responsibility not only to the broader fraternity but also to their respective committees. Consistent participation and active involvement in committee events, tasks, and initiatives are essential.

Committee Meetings: Committee members should prioritize attendance at all scheduled committee meetings. These sessions play a pivotal role in the planning, coordination, and execution of committee tasks, and every member's input is invaluable.

Notification of Absence: If a committee member cannot attend a scheduled meeting due to unforeseen circumstances, it's essential to notify the committee chair or the relevant point of contact as soon as possible, preferably 24 hours in advance.

Value Contribution: It's not just about attendance; it's about contributing value. Members should come prepared to meetings, actively engage in discussions, and collaborate effectively with peers to ensure meeting the committee's objectives.

Review of Participation: A member's consistent absence or lack of active participation in committee meetings and events without a genuine reason may lead to a review by the committee chair and, if necessary, the fraternity leadership.

Policy 5. Open Dating Policy

Kappa Theta Pi - Mu Chapter is committed to fostering an environment where all members, regardless of gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, or relationship status, are treated with respect, dignity, and fairness. We emphasize the importance of clear communication, consent, and the availability of resources for support. This policy applied to all fraternity members, pledges, alumni, and officers.

Definition: Open dating involves engaging in romantic or intimate relationships within the fraternity while adhering to consent, respect, and open communication principles.

Guidelines and Expectations:

1. Consent: All members engaging in romantic or intimate relationships within the fraternity must ensure that consent is affirmative, unambiguous, and voluntary. Consent should be given explicitly for each sexual activity during a sexual encounter.

2. Respectful Communication: Members engaging in relationships must communicate openly, honestly, and respectfully with their partners. They should discuss boundaries, expectations, and concerns to ensure a healthy and consensual relationship.
3. Confidentiality and Compliance Reporting: Any member who experiences discomfort, harassment, or any form of misconduct within a relationship is encouraged to report the incident to the designated compliance head or any authority you feel comfortable with within the fraternity. All reports will be handled confidentially, and appropriate actions will be taken to address the issue.
4. No Retaliation: Retaliation against any member who reports an incident, raises concern, or seeks assistance regarding a relationship issue is strictly prohibited. The fraternity is committed to protecting the rights and well-being of those who come forward.
5. Enforcement and Accountability: Violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action, which includes warning, education, suspension, or expulsion from the fraternity, depending on the severity and recurrence of the violation.

Policy 6. Interaction with Pledges

Kappa Theta Pi - Mu Chapter recognizes the importance of fostering a positive, respectful environment for all members, including pledges. The policy provides guidelines on how organizational members should conduct themselves when interacting with pledges, ensuring a supportive and educational experience during the pledge process.

Guidelines and Expectations:

1. Respectful Treatment: All organizational members must treat pledges with respect, fairness, and professionalism. Hazing, discrimination, harassment, or intimidation towards pledges is strictly prohibited.
2. Guidance and Mentorship: Organizational members should offer guidance, mentorship, and support to pledges throughout the pledging process. Encourage their personal and professional growth while upholding the values and mission of Kappa Theta Pi - Mu Chapter.
3. Education on Fraternity Values: Pledges should be educated about the fraternity's values, goals, and expectations. Members are encouraged to help pledges understand and align with the principles and standards of the fraternity.
4. No Discrimination: Pledges should not be subjected to discrimination based on race, ethnicity, creed, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, national origin, age, or disability.
5. Maintaining Professionalism: All interactions with pledges should be conducted professionally and appropriately. Any person or romantic relationship with a pledge is strictly prohibited during the pledging period.

Policy 7. Relationships with Pledges

Kappa Theta Pi - Mu Chapter emphasized the importance of maintaining appropriate boundaries and fostering a healthy, professional environment during pledging. This policy outlines the fraternity's stance on relationships with pledges.

Guidelines and Expectations:

1. No Romantic Relations During Pledging: Organizational members are not allowed to initiate or engage in romantic relationships with pledges while in the pledging process. This includes any form of dating, romantic involvement, or intimate relationships.
2. Prior Relationships: If an organization member is already in a romantic relationship with an individual who subsequently becomes a pledge, the fraternity understands and respects this relationship. However, both parties should act professionally and maintain appropriate boundaries during pledging.
3. Transparency and Accountability: If a pre-existing relationship exists between an organizational member and a pledge, both parties should promptly inform the appropriate fraternity authorities to ensure transparency and adherence to fraternity policies.
4. Post-Pledging Relationships: Once the pledging period is successfully completed, and the pledge becomes a full member of the fraternity, any existing relationship can continue without restriction, provided it aligns with the values and policies of Kappa Theta Pi - Mu Chapter.

2. Representation and Public Behavior:

Respectful Representation: Members should always represent the fraternity positively and respectfully, both in person and online.

Public Criticism: Openly criticizing or denigrating the fraternity or its members in public forums, including social media, is strictly prohibited.

Confidentiality: Internal matters, discussions, or confidential information should not be shared outside of the fraternity.

5. Financial Responsibility:

Dues: Members are expected to pay their dues on time. If a member faces financial difficulties, they should approach the current executive board to discuss potential solutions.

Fraternity Property: Members should respect and take care of any property belonging to the fraternity.

6. General Behavior:

Leadership Respect: Members should respect the decisions and directives of fraternity leadership while feeling empowered to voice their opinions in appropriate forums.

Every member of Kappa Theta Pi should strive to uphold these standards, not just for the reputation of our fraternity but also for personal growth and the betterment of our community. Violations of this Code of Conduct may be subject to review and potential disciplinary action.

Kappa Theta Pi - Mu Chapter is deeply committed to ensuring that every member, particularly the pledges, experiences a nurturing, respectful, and enriching environment that aligns with our fraternity values and ethos. This policy outlines the standards of behavior expected when interacting with pledges.

Guidelines and Expectations:

Positive Reinforcement: Encourage pledges through positive reinforcement rather than criticism. Recognize their efforts and contributions to foster a sense of belonging and motivation.

Clear Boundaries: Maintain clear and professional boundaries. Personal and romantic relationships between organizational members and pledges are strictly prohibited during the pledging period to avoid conflicts of interest or perceived favoritism.

Open Communication: Maintain transparent lines of communication. Pledges should feel comfortable seeking guidance, asking questions, or voicing concerns without fear of retribution.

Nurturing Environment: Avoid intimidating actions, words, or behaviors. Instead, create an environment where pledges can thrive, learn, and grow.

Zero Tolerance for Hazing: Hazing in any form is strictly prohibited. Any member engaging in or promoting hazing activities will face immediate disciplinary action.

Role Modeling: As seasoned fraternity members, your actions, words, and behaviors are models for the pledges. Uphold the highest standards of conduct and integrity and exemplify what it means to be a part of Kappa Theta Pi - Mu Chapter.

Constructive Feedback: If feedback is required, ensure it is constructive, respectful, and provided in a manner that aids the pledge's development rather than diminishes their confidence.